The workshop included members of the Region 3 Suicide Prevention Coalition, in addition to community stakeholders. Emily reviewed several data points, the mission and vision, and the guiding principles adopted by the Coalition. At the workshop, three priority areas were identified: prevention, community resilience, and relationship building. From there, three core focus areas were identified: veteran and rural populations, youth, and postvention. Throughout the year, Emily will work on completing the goals and objectives that support each of the focus areas. Nikki recommended engaging local faith-based organizations. Vito suggested partnering with NA/AA chapters and sponsors. Chris questioned the level of partnership with local veterans.
