It was a successful transition, and the open house was well attended, including presence from local media. Clarvida staff have been navigating the transition well. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>WIDCCC Funding and Budgets</li> </ul> Funding is continuing as normal, but no contract from Magellan. Revenue and expenses are as expected. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>WIDCCC 2024 - A Year in Review!</li> </ul> Cas presented a yearly recap of WIDCCC's accomplishments in 2024, including census, demographics, reasons for visiting, services rendered, referrals, aftercare, discharge locations and disposition, diversions, and more. |                           |
| 1:30          | Crisis Center Update            | Abigail, Clarvida                 | Monthly WIDCCC Presentation & DiscussionAbigail presented her January update.Overall census has gone down mainly due to a decrease of repeat visitors (they are doing well or engaging in other diversion services). The number of first-time visitors are increasing.Gender breakdown with census is as expected, however, agency referrals are increasing. Additionally, January services were almost all mental health only, with only one substance use only and 13 dual services.  |                           |

|      |         |                                   |  |   |
